STROUD

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Stroud is a prosperous country town of about 12,000 inhabitants, situated on the river of a steep hill, thus commanding a lovely view of the fertile valleys in this locality. It is the centre of the local clothing and woollen industries which have flourished here for many years. Its name is derived from the Anglo-Saxon strood, meaning "scattered", a title earned by the houses being dispersed about the hill-side.
